GREAT REDUCTION

—IN—

CLOAKS.

We have marked down every

Lady's, Miss's and Child's Cloak, Jacket and Wran

In the house. Not one has escaped the knife. It is no mere paring to which this stock has been subjected, but deep and relentless cutting.

WE WILL WILLINGLY TAKE LESS THAN COST

For all Cloaks on hand to close them out entirely. We do not want to commence next season with any of this season's Cloaks. No garment has been reduced less than 25 per cent., and the most of them a great deal more; none are now marked above cost, but many are marked below.

The Original Tickets Remain,

So that everyone can see the difference between former and present prices.

As we always have been, and are now, an absolutely one-price house, the old marks on the tickets are reliable.

We have a grand bargain in

Misses' and Children's Black and Colored Hose,

Which were bought very much under the regular price and are being sold by us for considerably less than we usually have to pay for them. Throughout the entire stock are attractive bargains.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The country roads are in a horrible quagmire condition.

Allen W. Bowie has been appointed postmaster at Clark's Gap, Loudoun county.

A party of gentlemen will leave here to-morrow morning for a fox hunt in Fairfax county.

Pennel C. Poulson, who was confined in jail for forgery, having served his term, was to-day released and left for Flushing, L. I.

By consent of the heirs and the court, a pistol, the property of the late Officer Julian Arnold, has been presented to Officer Ticer.

There will be a partial eclipse of the moon to-night and to-morrow night, which will be visible more or less to the world generally, except to the people of Asia and Australia.

At the last monthly meeting of the association of the Army of the Tennessee, C. S. A., at New Orleans, Maj. W. T. Claverius, formerly of this city, was elected second vice president.

It is probable that Gov. Lee will invite the A. L. I. to act as a part of his escort when he goes to New York, on the 30th of April, to attend the 100th anniversary of Washington's inauguration as President.

Officer Howe, of Washington, met Officer White, of the Virginia penitentiary here yesterday and received the $70 reward offered for the arrest of Posey Jones, an escaped convict. Jones, who was brought here, was taken back to Richmond.

Members of the petit jury who yesterday, in the Corporation Court, served on the larceny case, discussed the propriety of sending a petition to the legislature to enact a law re-establishing the whipping post.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Benjamin F. Murray and Mary A. Harrison, both of this city, and to Henry (askins, of Alexandria county, and Virginia S. Robinson, of Chesterfield county.

A fair audience greeted Mr. Sol. Smith Russell at the Opera House last night, but his new play, "Bowtched," was not considered as good as the others he has appeared in in this city. The disorderly behavior in the gallery was very annoying to the company and audience.

A called meeting of the Columbia S. F. E. Company was held last night at which Messrs. A. T. Ramsay, G. N. Duffey and W. G. Simpson were appointed a committee to represent that company at the meeting to be held to-morrow night looking to the celebration of the 22d of February.

Officer Slack, of Washington, who arrested Billy Williams after he escaped from jail in this city, was here to-day to claim the $500 reward offered by the city for Williams' arrest and conviction. He wants the whole $500 and says Officer Riley, of Baltimore, who was here yesterday after the reward, is entitled to none of it.

The alarm of fire about 5:30 o'clock yesterday evening, and which brought out the fire department, was caused by a slight fire in the show window of the store of Mr. C. W. Howell, on King street. The fire was accidentally started by an employee while lighting the gas, the lace curtain in the window catching fire. The damage was slight.

J. A. Jeffers, who was deputy postmaster of Richmond under Miss Van Lew, died in Charleston, W. Va., last Friday.

LOCAL MATTERS

For this section rain, warmer, increasing south-westerly winds.

AN ALEXANDRIA COUPLE—This morning on the opening of the courthouse, a man and two women appeared and a marriage license was procured in the names of Benjamin F. Murray and Mary A. Harrison, both of Alexandria. The groom appeared to be about twenty-six years of age, and there were two women with him, one a well-dressed one, approaching sixty years, and the other not half that age. Those persons present at the court house naturally supposed that the candidates for matrimony were the young man and the younger woman, but they were wrong. They were informed that the younger woman was a happy wife and the mother of five children, and that the bride expectant was her mother. A speedy marriage being desired, Rev. J. B. Foley was sent for, the Circuit Court room was opened for the event, and in a few minutes the marriage ceremony was performed. Wash. Star yesterday.

CORPORATION COURT—Judge Charles E. Leadbeater presiding—Continuation of yesterday's proceedings.—Com. vs. Richard Cooper, colliery agent for grand larceny in receiving stolen money; jury and verdict of a guilty.

Com. vs. Asbury Bell, indicted as above; jury and verdict of guilty.

To-day—The will of I. Rammel was admitted to probate, and Mrs. Rammel qualified as executrix.

Com. vs. Geo. Lucas, indicted for larceny from the person; jury and verdict of not guilty and prisoner discharged.

Com. vs. Virginia Meale and Georgeanna Lucas, indicted as above; jury and case in progress.

The civil docket will be called to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

CONCERT.—It will be seen by an advertisement, which appears in another column that the Alexandria Musical Association will give a concert at their rooms in Sarepta Hall, on the night of Thursday, January 24th. The association will be assisted by members of the Haydn Orchestra of Baltimore and several soloists especially engaged for this occasion. The numbers which compose the programme have been selected with great care. The instrumental part has been arranged for an orchestra of twenty-three performers, and the vocal and brass for twenty-two instruments. This will probably be the best concert given by the association and will surpass all previous efforts. The sale of tickets are to be limited to the seating capacity of the hall.

A RELIC.—Col. Edmund Berkeley, of this city, has in his possession an old paper which is a curiosity indeed. It is a call to the members of the House of Burgesses of Virginia to attend a meeting to be held in Williamsburg on August 1, 1774, to consider the subject of American grievances. The paper sets forth that the people of Boston are in a piteous and melancholy situation and want the assistance of their sister colonies in forming a general association against exports and imports to or from Great Britain. It is dated Williamsburg, May 31, 1774, and signed by Peyton Randolph, moderator; Henry Lee, Thos. Jefferson, George Washington, Edmund Berkeley, Edmund Pendleton, Mann Page, jr., Chas. Nelson, jr., Lewis Burwell, and others.

THE Y. M. C. A. GYMNASIUM.—As heretofore stated a committee of nine prominent business men of this city was appointed at the last meeting of the Y. M. C. A. to plan for the erection of a gymnasium in connection with the present building. This committee met last night and decided to draw up plans so that the community might see what it is intended to erect. These plans will be presented, if possible, on Friday next at 8 o'clock, p. m., at which time Mr. H. M. Clarke, of Washington, and Mr. H. O. Williams, of Richmond, will address the association in its parlor on the subject of physical culture. All men who are interested in this important subject are invited to attend.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was cool and clear till about 1 o'clock, when it became cloudy. There were six lodgers but no prisoners at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Charlotte G. Dhand, arrested by Officer Deer for abusive language, was fined $1.50.

Albert Fisher, charged with throwing stones in the street, was fined $1.

The case of Charles Smith, who yesterday assaulted John Smarr, did not come up, Smarr not entering an appearance.

MR. SPENCER.—In reference to the report that Mr. Samuel Spencer, ex-president of the E. & O. Railroad, has been offered the management of the New York Central in the place of Chauncey M. Depew, Mr. S. said yesterday: "I have never heard anything of this story before, and can say emphatically that there is no truth in it. I can say nothing more than that." There is an rumor report that he is considering an offer ahead of the Richmond Terminal in case President Luman wants to shift the responsibility to some one else's shoulders.

Y. M. C. A.—The Thirtieth Annual State Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of this State will convene at Danville on Thursday 14, Rev. J. W. Young, of the M. E. Church South in this city will assist in the exercises. A large male chorus will lead the singing. Reduced rates on the railroads and free entertainment will be provided for the delegates.

WAR RELICS.—Mr. W. J. Summers, who during the war was orderly sergeant of Kemper's Battery, has presented Washington Lodge of Masons with two cannon balls fired by his battery at Vienna in the attack on Gen. Shenck's forces and which were found on the field twenty-five years afterwards. The balls will be kept in the museum of the Lodge.

THE ARLINGTON ESTATE.—A new official map has been made by the United States government of the 1,100 acres of land in Alexandria county known as the Arlington estate. The map contains the route of the new road leading from the center of the county through the Arlington estate
